Miners' Convention Will Continue the Fight.

Demand More Than the Operators Have Offered.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire
SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 13—The Miners' Convention has voted to continue the strike.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 13.—The Miners' Convention adopted the following resolution and adjourned sine die:
"We would recommend that this convention accept the 10 per cent advance, providing the operators will continue to pay the sliding scale in the Lehigh and Schuylkill regions, the 2 per cent advance in the two last named districts to remain in effect at 10 per cent above the present basis of price, and that the company agree to adjust other grievances complained of with committees of their own employees. Should the operators be unacceptable to the operators we recommend that all questions be submitted to a fair and impartial committee of arbitration."

"We would further recommend that under no circumstances whatever should there be a suspension of work at any of the mines until the operators signify their acceptance of this proposition and you are notified officially that the strike is ended, and you will return to work in a body on the same day."

D. HIRSCHBERG MAKES DEFENSE

Denies the Grave Charges Made By Sacramento "Bee."

"Bee."

David Hirschberg has something to say about the charges that have been made against him as Superintendent of the Preston School of Industry.

He says the charges are false and he proposes to fight them.
Mr. Hirschberg is an old resident of Oakland. He has a host of friends here who believe that he has made an honorable record as a public official. Supt. Hirschberg has sent the following explanation to THE TRIBUNE:
"I ONE, Oct. 13, 1900.
"Editor OAKLAND TRIBUNE—In reference to the Carly boy matter, I will say that when it was brought to my attention the boys implicated were punished."

"Sometimes matters of that kind might occur, but not to my knowledge. When they are brought to my notice I make every effort to find out concerning such matters. The boys are then punished accordingly."
"In the case of Jerry Green, he was guilty of rank disobedience to an official and I punished him for it."
"During the punishment he insulted me and I struck him, but there was no brutality in his case or any other."

"Further than that, a complete record of all punishments inflicted is kept and this has only been kept since I have been connected with the school."
"This record is open for inspection to any person entitled to see it."
"I have had no quarrel with my officials except in one or two instances which naturally would occur in institutions of this kind."
"On the contrary, the most friendly relations exist."

"Every case of immorality that has come under my notice has been punished."
"I do not commit the boys here."
"I have no knowledge of boys over age being committed here."
"If a boy is an incorrigible or is a detriment to the institution, we return him to the court which sent him here, as the law provides."
"I have been here three years on the first of next January."
"I have worked for the success of the institution, and all the criticisms and charges that have been made are unjust and untrue."

"I AM NOT GOING OUT OF THIS INSTITUTION COVERED WITH MUD, BECAUSE THE FACTS DO NOT JUSTIFY ANYTHING OF THAT KIND."

WOMAN FILES SARCASTIC PAPER BEFORE JUDGE

The contest over the will of the late William Patton took a new turn this morning, when Mary Dickson, guardian of Clarence Patton, one of the heirs who has been declared incompetent, filed an offer to compromise which took the opposing forces by surprise.
Mrs. Dickson is an Alameda school teacher. She points that while the attorneys for the other side have presented innumerable legal reasons why a compromise should be effected, she takes no stock in their assertions, but prefers to get down to a common-sense view of the matter. Threatened with endless legal delays if she does not submit to the propositions advanced, Mrs. Dickson says:
"While it is true the law's delays are generally long, people survive, and this guardian presumes she will survive."
She offers to compromise on the basis of paying one-half of the following amounts:
Mrs. Fannie Amerman, $2,000; E. K. Taylor, her attorney, $200; T. F. Garrity, $500; E. D. Tappan, $500; Sarah Parsons, $200; costants' costs (estimated), $125.
Continuing the guardian says:
"The guardian claims that neither the special administrators nor their counsel have done anything but get letters and empty agents to collect rents, and there is no more necessity of having four men to do that work than there is a necessity of hitching a horse to a grand automobile. But if the court is of the opinion that it requires four able-bodied men to obtain letters of administration and two able-bodied real estate agents to collect $103 a month rent, then they shall have compensation for their actual services."
She stipulates that she will not pay the Garrity claim unless he produces a release from W. J. Donovan and deducts from the amount $200 already advanced him.
"The guardian believes," says Mrs. Dickson, "that a poor compromise in this case is better than a good law suit. John Patton left claim to $250 of the estate for 'deceptive services,' but the guardian believes he did not earn 20 cents, and will not compromise his claim unless he files an honest account."

HONEST BALLOT

Roosevelt Pleads for a Fair Vote in Kentucky.

Bryan's Inconsistency Gets a Severe Handling.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
HENDERSON, Ky., Oct. 13—Governor Roosevelt began his campaign in Kentucky at 8 o'clock, making an address at this place. A large crowd greeted the Governor, who was escorted from the train by prominent Kentucky politicians.

Governor Roosevelt said in part: "In this campaign I have a right to appeal to you on more than one issue. I believe emphatically in sound currency, in expansion, in the honor of the flag, and more than all, in orderly liberty under the law, which lies at the foundation of our Constitution. I believe emphatically in a square deal for every man and that he be allowed to have his voice counted as it was cast. I believe it in New York and I believe it in Kentucky."
"A voice—So do we!"
"And I believe this is less a party contest than a crusade for freedom. I have stood on the platform with Northern men and Southern men and with men who have worn the blue and men who have worn the gray, and all agree that liberty stands as the basis of American citizenship. If the people are wise they will pursue the course which has brought material prosperity, but greater than material prosperity is freedom."

AT HOPKINSVILLE.
HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 13—Severe hoarseness interfered with Governor Roosevelt today as the result of a cold. At Madisonville he made a brief speech, but could scarcely speak above a whisper. He said in part:
"There are many issues at stake in this campaign of vital importance to the people. It is of the utmost importance that we should have sound currency and that we should preserve the conditions that have led to our material prosperity, but it is even of greater importance to keep undimmed the honor of the flag in the faces of the nation of the earth, and greater yet to preserve the principles that lie at the root of sound government. We may differ as to the policies and the Nation will still go ahead, but when once a considerable body of our people cease to understand that it is the right of every man to cast his vote as he wishes and to have that vote counted as cast, self-government itself is in danger. We cannot, my countrymen, go on long as a republic if that right is denied."

In his speech at Hopkinsville Governor Roosevelt said:
"Mr. Bryan is exceedingly worried for fear there may be an infringement of the doctrine of the Declaration of Independence in the Philippines. He fears lest we do injustice to Tagal natives shooting at our troops who wear Uncle Sam's uniform in the Philippines. Let him stop being jealous about it and let him explain how it was that he came into this State to uphold fraud and dishonesty. A good thing to find one's own house in order before you attend overmuch to that of some one else on the other side of the globe. I appeal not only to Republicans but to all good Democrats who are Americans first and decline to follow the party when it treats the devoted paths of mob violence, the suppression of votes unduly and the casting of the seal of men who are not elected." (Applause.)
STEVENSON IN DELAWARE.
BALTIMORE, Ohio, Oct. 13—Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency, reached this city this morning and left at once for Wilmington, Del., where he is booked to speak this afternoon. Mr. Stevenson shows some signs of fatigue, but on the whole is bearing the strain of active campaigning remarkably well. He expresses absolute confidence in Democratic success in Maryland, and declined to say anything concerning President Cleveland's latest declaration on the currency question.

PROTECT THE U. C. CO-EDS.

The Danger Signal Is Out Against the Unmarried Professors.

Professors.

Are unmarried professors to be restricted and married ones to be given full swing in directing unmarried co-eds as to the calling in life they should pursue and the course of study they should follow preparatory to graduation from the University of California?

That is the question which President Wheeler and his advisors have now under consideration.
While it has not been answered in the affirmative by the adoption of a regulation on the subject the president has a leaning of to uncertain character toward drawing the line between such advisers and having the work devolve upon those wise men or the faculty who have taken wives unto themselves.
The possibility of such discrimination is not a grateful subject to those professors and instructors who have not yet entered the married state, because they feel that it questions their morality and, at the same time, their standing as gentlemen in the community.
President Wheeler says that the matter of directing a young woman for study and in life work is a matter of saving her soul and that the duty should not be imposed upon unmarried men.
The subject was suggested by the following, which is an extract from a letter received today from a correspondent of THE TRIBUNE:

"But some other things at Berkeley make me sick. For instance, I hear that a number of regulations have been adopted into effect as to the relations of unmarried professors to their students. An unmarried professor is declared from advising a Freshman co-ed as to her state of mind. Co-eds are forbidden to receive visitors in their rooms. It is as if we were in a convent. I am sure that the professors in their rooms, and that they are trying to make the big co-ed sentimental college more like a little convent. It seems a great pity."

"It is simply a question of advising freshmen what is best for them to do. Professors are expected to do, freshmen in mapping out their course in life and indicating to them what line of study they should follow. Freshmen should be assigned to people who would be able to give that advice."
"It is a confidential relation. IT IS A QUESTION OF DIRECTING THEM WISELY, AND IT IS A QUESTION OF SAVING THEIR SOULS FROM HELL, AND UNDER THOSE CIRCUMSTANCES, NO SANE PERSON WOULD THINK OF ASSIGNING AN UNMARRIED WOMAN TO AN UNMARRIED MAN."
"This is so sensible a proposition that it cannot be disputed by any person. If you have any correspondent who is insane, why the proposition might be discussed for you by such a person."

IT IS A CRIME TO ATTEMPT TO SUICIDE

This is the story of a man who tried to hang himself, being arrested for disturbing the peace.
He tried to hang himself in Blair Park and was caught in the act. He tried to hang himself in the park last Thursday and was already turning black in the face when Deputy Constable J. B. Richards, who has charge of the grounds, cut him down and took him to the insane ward at the Receiving Hospital.
Richards was horribly shocked by the affair and claims that at night he sees men with blackened faces and protruding tongues dangling at rope's ends from every tree in the park. He saved the rope by which Kleigel attempted to hang himself and presented it to Drs. Milton and Tidwell, who examined the man this morning, as evidence of his insanity.
The physicians, however, reached the conclusion that Kleigel was perfectly sane and was about to discharge him when the Deputy Constable asked them to swear to a complaint charging Kleigel with disturbing the peace of the grounds. He took Kleigel into custody and haled him into court. He was held for trial.
Richards claimed the would-be suicide had disturbed his peace not only at the time of the attempted hanging, but every night since and he is determined to discourage those tired of life from making the park in his charge their jumping-off place.
He asserts that the sight of Kleigel dangling at the end of a rope disturbed his peace at the time and that victims of the man in the moonlight have continued to make his life one of unrest and unhappiness ever since.

CASE OF BIGAMY

R. H. Hutchinson Says He Was Duped by His Wife.

She Had Another Husband When Became a Bride.

In a complaint filed with the county clerk this morning Richard W. Hutchinson, a lithographer, who formerly resided at 71 Adeline street, confesses that he was duped into marrying a woman who had another husband living at the time from whom she had not been divorced.

Hutchinson's wedding was celebrated in this city June 17, 1897. He thought that the name of his bride was Josie Louisa Miller, but subsequent developments convinced him that she was Miss Louisa. After the wedding Hutchinson furnished the cottage at 705 Adeline street, and went there to live with his wife. His domestic happiness lasted just a month.
By accident he discovered that his wife had been married, prior to their union, to Robert H. Allen at Napa.
When he charged his wife with deceiving him she confessed that she had never been divorced from Allen and that he was still alive.
A stormy scene followed and Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson separated for good. Hutchinson asks the court to declare the marriage null and void.

Help for Weak Women

Thousands of women endure the tortures of living death and at last succumb to the diseases peculiar to their sex without knowing of the life and health which is theirs through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, an ever faithful remedy that cures where all others fail.

Mrs. Grace Campbell, of 351 Logan Street, Grand Rapids, Michigan, relates the following story:

"The birth of my first child left me in a deplorable condition. My system was broken down and I suffered from general debility. I was exceedingly nervous and rheumatism often troubled me. My appetite failed me and I lost much sleep and vitality. I was thin and pale, and had no energy. My condition was such that I could not do my usual work. I had used several well-known remedies but found no relief. I then read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and decided to try them. I followed the directions and in a few days I began to feel better. My appetite improved and I gained weight. My rheumatism disappeared and I was able to do my work. I am now a healthy, robust woman and I have no more of the troubles I once suffered from. I can truly say that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the best remedy for weak women."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold in boxes (never in loose bulk) at 50 cents a box or 2 boxes for $1.00, and may be obtained of all druggists or by direct mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, 100 North 2nd Street, New York, N. Y.

POLITICAL GOSSIP OF THE STATE

By GEORGE F. HATTON

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—The Collector continues to hold the center of the political stage as far as individual interest is concerned, for the conferences this week between Senators Bard and Perkins have inaugurated a new condition of affairs in California patronage.

For many years previous to Bard's election the fact that the State was never represented at Washington by two Senators of the majority party made it an easy proposition to handle the various offices, for one man had the disposition of them all and hence could arrange matters to suit himself.

Now, however, there is a new order of things, for the declaration by Senator Perkins that his colleague has an equal voice in the selection of Jackson's successor shows that they are not going to divide the State into two sections and each handle all the patronage in his particular part independently of the other, but that they will act together upon every appointment of note. Had Perkins been able to avoid the place there is little doubt that it would have gone to Hamilton, but those who have talked with Bard on the subject say that in their opinion the Ventura Senator will stand for the position going to a new man, together, as he thinks they already on the payroll should consider themselves mutually provided for. This seems to dispose of both Hamilton's and Spier's chances, and in any event the vigorous fight being made in the latter's interest would not, it is thought, bear fruit owing to the fact that it is well known that Perkins does not look with any kindly eyes upon the Senator. The name of Frank A. Leach, Superintendent of the Mint, has been mentioned a good deal during the past few days as a probability, but in view of Bard's stand as to those already provided for, it is scarcely likely that his name will be on the winning card.

It is as believed by those who have talked with Bard, an outside man is to get the place, the chances are that Major McLaughlin will be the one, in a great deal of work is being done in his behalf by his friends. There has been an absolute burying of factional differences in his case and there can be no doubt that his appointment would be extremely popular, in addition, which it would be conferring an honor where it is well deserved.

There seems little doubt that the place will not be filled until after the election, but the candidates will keep hard at it all the same, for the lucky man will be to all intents and purposes decided upon during the next few days.

THE GUBERNATORIAL OUTLOOK

Mention in this correspondence last week of the extreme likelihood that Governor Gage will be a candidate for re-nomination has given rise to a good deal of gossip, and those who have been investigating the situation feel well satisfied that that is how the cards will go. This condition of affairs has naturally given the other candidates for Governor a whole lot to think about, for with Gage in the arena there is no doubt that the party organization will be with him.

Over at the State Central Committee room alone there are two gubernatorial candidates in the persons of Col. George Stone and Senator Cutler, but it is understood that they have already planned other engagements so as not to interfere with Gage's candidacy. It is in fact said that Cutler is already assured that he will be on the State ticket in 1902 as a nominee, not Governor, and that he is well satisfied with that arrangement.

JUDICIAL COMPLICATIONS

At this time the foretelling of the State ticket two years hence is already well under way, every one realizes that so many contingencies are in the air that there is likely to be a complete change of program long ere that time. The fate of the constitutional amendment creating the Appellate Courts, cuts a big figure in the calculations, for should it prove successful it will create lots of new combinations as regards the judicial ticket.

This is the situation. Under the present law the terms of Chief Justice Beatty and Supreme Justices Harrison and Garretts will expire in 1902 and they are all candidates for re-election.

Should, however, the Appellate Court amendment be carried there will be only a Chief Justice to be elected, for the new system provides for reducing the Supreme Court by the two members, whose terms first expire. They are to be allowed to serve out their terms but that is all, and thereafter the Supreme Court is to consist of four Justices and one Chief Justice.

It can be seen, therefore, what a lot of politics depends upon the fate of the amendment. If there are three Justices to be elected, delegations will naturally be put up in the interests of the present, outgoing members, whereas if there is only a Chief Justice to be elected, Harrison and Garretts will both go after it as well as Beatty, and the result will be some keen political maneuvering on those lines, involving almost every other place upon the State ticket.

Then again the passage of the amendment would mean the election of nine Appellate Justices two years from now, and as each place pays $6000 per annum, a lively stir and all sorts of cross-combinations would result from the candidates for those positions. It is true that they would be distinct elections, but then they would complicate the State ticket just as the Railroad Commission's places and places on the Board of Equalization do now.

FORD FOR RENOMINATION

While these legal positions are under discussion it may be well to mention that Attorney-General Tiley L. Ford will in all probability be a candidate for re-nomination. His name has been frequently mentioned for Governor, but he is not inclined to enter a fight so complicated as that one is, and he is well enough satisfied to continue in his present position. It is said that he should have less trouble securing the nomination for 1902 than he had before, for he has retained all his old strength and his added to it by his administration of his department. His sole object has been to live up to the pledges he made to the public when he was out for election, and that he has done so is a matter of record. General Ford is strongly backed by the leading men of the State, who regard him as their champion, and there is not much fear that he will be lost sight of in any political shuffle that may occur.

SOME SOCIAL COLORING

Not only will the racing season this winter be made notable by the many high-class stables that are coming out here, but Prince Poniatowski is going to introduce a number of social features that ought to make the Wilby-boy element singularly happy. One of these is to be a road coach on the lines of the one that goes daily from the White Horse Cellars in London and it will leave the Palace Hotel at noon every day there is racing at Tanforan and make the trip over the roads to that track. It is to be a regular well-coached and four with footmen touting on their horns and so forth and a gentleman whip. The public can ride on it, though it will be apparent that its patronage will be drawn from a very limited circle, when it is stated that the round trip will probably be $2 each for an ordinary seat and $5 for a box seat. Beyond San Mateo, a well-known society man, is to drive throughout the season and the Tanforan Club will provide for his horses, stabling, etc., he getting the fun of driving out of the proposition and the Jockey Club taking the receipts and paying the expenses. It is expected that the trip will be made in about an hour.

Another novelty is to be a member's house constructed on the inside field at the race track immediately across from the judges' stand. This is to be for the use of the fashionable and will be built mainly of glass so as to permit a thorough view in every direction. It will contain a private bar and all the other adjuncts of a clubhouse.

Then there is to be a racing system inaugurated that the Prince thinks will effectually prevent fraud on the part of the jockeys. George Parsons, the English steeplechase rider who has been living at San Mateo the past year or so, has been engaged for this work, which will consist of taking charge of the jockeys from the time they leave their dressing room for each race until they are in the starter's hands. Parsons will then take his position in a little glass topped box that is to be built at the head of the stretch and will be connected with the judges' stand by a special track telephone. The duties of the second judge will be to listen to Parsons over the phone, and the latter individual will keep up a running fire of criticism from his point of vantage while the race is being run, such as "Spencer is crowding Jones, Bullman isn't shaking up his horse, So-and-so isn't trying, etc." As most of the alleged crookedness is supposed to be done when the horses turn into the stretch, Prince Poniatowski thinks that when the jockeys know they are being watched in this way they will not attempt any funny business.

The steeplechase course is to be constructed at once, as about forty jockeys are coming out here, many from Canada. The Prince is going to make this branch of racing a feature this year and intends to stimulate it by giving liberal purses, some of them being as high as $1,500. The steeplechase is to include some very stiff jumps, and will be constructed on the English plan. The proposed straight chute for a two-year-old course has been abandoned for the present.

GOSSIP FROM HONOLULU

Your correspondent is in receipt of a chatty letter from C. O. Ziegenfuss, who left his editorial chair on the Stockton Mail a few months ago and went to Honolulu to grow up with the country. "Zieg" is doing well. He is city editor of the Honolulu Republican and editor of the Paradise of the Pacific, a monthly, and The Hawaiian Observer, a small weekly which he says will be the only Democratic paper in the new Territory.

"Zieg" takes a very cheery view of the conditions in the islands. "There are plenty of opportunities here to make money," he says. "Gill is here, so is P. B. Danley, who was with me at Fresno and Stockton. Walter G. Smith, formerly of the San Francisco Chronicle, edits the Advertiser; O'Brien is city editor of the same paper and Mayer and Sabin are reporters on it. They were all formerly of San Francisco; in fact, you meet a Californian on every corner."

"Sainpes"? No, I haven't tried that native connection, which costs 50 cents a gallon and furnishes a month's spree. I am not strong enough. Gill is the almost universal beverage, with Scotch and Irish whiskeys next. If you want the genuine Kentucky goods, you must call for "American whisky." All drinks, including beer, are too good. The tendency is to make lonely drinkers. It is a great drinking town, though liquors are very detrimental physically."

HERE AND THERE

Secretary of State Charles F. Curry is in town on a little business, but is improving the shining hour by doing a good turn for some of his local friends who have fights in the balance on election day.

Col. Burns is expected back today from the McCloud river where he has been putting in a week fishing. Hartley F. Peart, the boy orator of Woodland and well-remembered in legislative circles as the three-volume reader of the last Assembly, has been elected secretary of the First Voters' Club here.

Clare Williamson, who abandoned newspaper life a year or so ago for a less exciting life, is now a deputy in the Register's office at the City Hall.

Charles Cook, formerly of the Macdonough Theater, is to be manager of the new popular-priced house that is to be opened next month by Belasco and Thiall of the Alcazar on Market street. The Battle of Manila panorama building is being remodeled for the venture, a 1.1 about $15,000 worth of improvements put in it. The plans are to have it ready for opening during Thanksgiving week. It will be run on the lines of the old Morosco's.

The Elks have taken inspiration from the trip of the Mystic Shrine to Honolulu and are planning a similar excursion of their order to the islands to establish a lodge there. At present the Elks are not represented in Hawaii, save by individual members. It is possible that when the Zealandia returns she will be chartered by the Elks and there is a lot of a number of similar excursions to Honolulu in the immediate future.

Dr. Matthews, Secretary of the State Board of Health, is visiting town for a few days.

As isolated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The Russian suggestion that the International Court of Arbitration of The Hague be given jurisdiction over divergencies of views arising on the question of Chinese indemnities, was submitted to Secretary Hay by Mr. De Wollant, the Russian Charge in Washington, in a note on October 12. It has received the adherence of the American, the French, and the Russian governments, thus giving the suggestion the approval of three of the foremost powers and strong assurance of its general adoption.

Mr. De Wollant's note has not yet been made public. It can be stated, however, that it was the result of extended exchanges between the French and Russian governments relative to the six proposals in the French note. It expressed approval of the various proposals and then added the new suggestion relative to giving ing The Hague Tribunal jurisdiction over the indemnity in case there should be a divergence of views.

It is not a definite proposition, but merely an incident to the approval of the French note, and has not called for a formal reply of acceptance, but the Russian authorities have been furnished with a copy of the American reply to the French note, wherein our approval is given to the Russian suggestion, so it is none the less effective in giving American adherence to the plan. It is understood that Austria and Italy also, and probably Japan, look with favor upon The Hague suggestion.

The movement promises to give the first practical realization to the czar's movement in bringing about the International Tribunal of The Hague.

The importance of the United States attaches to it is indicated by the choice of Ex-President Harrison and Ex-Senator George Gray of Delaware as the American members of the Tribunal.

BERLIN NEWS.

BERLIN, Oct. 13.—A dispatch here from Tien Tsin, dated October 12th, says: At a conference of the diplomats at Peking, October 8th, the German note of October 1st was discussed. In regard to the first point, whether the list of ring-leaders contained in the Chinese edict was complete, the conference declared the name of the chief confederate, Tung Fuh Shan and Yu Hsin, were omitted.

"On point two, it was decided that the punishment was inadequate. On point three, it was concluded that the penalties must be carried into effect by delegates of the legations."

PARIS END.

PARIS, Oct. 13.—A trustworthy cable dispatch from Shanghai says that General Liu, the Chief of the Black Flags, has left Canton at the head of a considerable force and that he will traverse the province of Hu Nan, cross the Yangtze at Ouan, and then traversing the province of Ho Nan, join the Empress at Sian Fu, capital of the province of Shen Si, for the purpose of acting as her body guard. The dispatch adds that it is believed that the Dowager Empress will arrive at Sian Fu about October 25th.

stands where a young man like Monnet must be driven out of the party because he dares to defend the laborer, the farmer and the business man from the extortion of money by the monopolies.

"You fathers, can you afford to tell your sons that it is better to betray a trust than to do their duty? Can you tell your sons that it is better for a man to violate his oath of office than to risk the hostility of a great corporation?"

"If Monnet cannot leave the Republican party, cannot the farmer and the laboring man and the business man whose interests he tried to protect afford to leave the Republican party, or will you say that you are so wedded to the Republican party that you would rather see the monopolies of this country than to leave the Republican party?"

Continuing Mr. Bryan said that the opposition to the enforcement of the law was not confined to the State of Ohio, but was found also in the Republican administration of the affairs of the Nation. He contrasted the affairs of the Nation with the conduct of the legal business of his own State of Nebraska, where he said the Democratic Attorney-General was obeying the law and prosecuting trusts at Chillicothe he was introduced as the next President, and in response he said:

"If the people will get out to the polls as early as they seem to be able to be at meetings and will show as much interest on election day as they are showing now, it is possible that the proposition may be fulfilled. But it is in your hands and in the hands of others throughout this country upon whom the responsibility of citizenship rests."

"We have no power or desire to coerce, and when I say that we have no power or desire to coerce, I think I am making a difference between our party and our opponents, for in 1896 they showed both the power and the desire to coerce, and in this campaign there are already indications that they are going to show both the power and the desire."

"I have known where Republican employers were willing to let their men off for an hour or two hours to hear a Republican speech, but not willing to let them off in order to hear a Democratic speech. I do not believe that a corporation has any business in politics. If you will read the charter of a corporation you will find it is organized for a business purpose, and if we obtain control of the Government we shall try to make it necessary for a corporation to attend to its own business."

"I want to ask you parents whether you want to hold before your sons the ideal of the Republican party as it now

The Fabiola Calendar just issued, carries with it Dr. Jordan's theory of life expressed in many sayings, among others, "It is not the nation that is the miracle, it is our part in life to work with all our strength toward the realization of ideal humanity, to add one more link to the chain which joins the man to the past, through the man of the present, to the man of the future. The man who in the last film, we have chosen as our ideal."

And elsewhere, Dr. Jordan says: "Every advance we make toward the realization of the ideal is a triumph of patience and immminence of law, brings us nearer to film, who is the first cause of all law and all phenomena."

"It is easy enough to be pleasant, When life flows by like a song.
